Five men and one woman who give their home address as Alexandria are among the most prominent Americans whose biographies are given in the 1919 edition of "Who's Who" in America, which has recently been issued. As is well known "Who's Who" is regarded as a standard book of reference and the only biographies published are those of Americans who have a national or international reputation.

The Alexandrians whose biographies are included are as folows:

Robert S. Barrett, Commercial Attache of the American Embassy at Buenos Aires and of the American Legations at Santiago (Chile), Montevido (Uruguay) and Asuncion (Paraguay), and Representative of the War Trade Board and Shipping Board at Buenos Aires; a commercial expert specializing in Latin America; son of Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett.

In connection with Alexandria's representation in this year's issue of "Who's Who," it is interesting to note that only in two other instances are biographies of a mother and son given.

KILLS FATHER'S SLAYER

Man in Chain Gang Grabs Gun From Guard and Shoots Down Georgia Farmer.

Douglas, Ga., March 19.—Robert Merritt, a member of a chain gang working on a road near here, yesterday, snatched a shotgun from a guard and killed Walter Harper, a farmer, who had killed Merritt's father several years ago.

According to members of the gang, Harper had driven up in a wagon, and when near the gang got out, carrying his pistol. Merritt approached a guard, asking for a match, and as the latter reached for one, Merritt snatched his shotgun, stepped back a pace and shot Harper.

Richmond—"Johnny Get Your Gun."

A picturesque moving picture cowboy, who breaks into society with a bang and saves his sister's fortune in the nick of time is the character that Fred Stone, newest of Artcraft stars, impersonates in hs new screnvehicle, "Johnny Get Your Gun," which will be seen at the Richmond Theatre tonight.

This Artcraft picture is one hundred per cent. Fred Stone, which means it is one hundred per cent pep, fun and drama.

"One Every Minute" a two reel comedy will also be shown.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our darling baby, Helen J. Vernon, who died one year ago today, March 19, 1918.

How sadly we counted the hours,
That measured this sorrowful year
Since we laid 'neath a mantle of flowers,
Our darling we loved so dear.
And tho' the circle is broken,
And parting has filled us with pain
We hold as a glorious token
The bright hope of meeting again.

PLAN MASS MEETING

Chamber of Commerce Appoints Committee to Arrange Meeting to Acquaint Citizens With Proposed New Plan of City Government.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce was held last night. A resolution from the general meeting requesting the board of directors to take the necessary steps to have this matter submitted to the qualified voters of the city, was considered, and all phases of the matter freely discussed.

It was the unanimous opinion of all directors present that the Chamber of Commerce, as an organization had about completed its work on this matter, and the only remaining step for the Chamber of Commerce to take in the matter was to call a general meeting of the qualified voters of Alexandria, and to give to this meeting what information and date the Chamber of Commerce might have on the subject.

The function of the Chamber of Commerce is to take up and investigate any matter effecting the general welfare of the city of Alexandria. The matter of the existing city government has been the subject of very free discussion for many months past. The present system has been freely criticised, but no practical remedy suggested, until a few weeks ago the Civic Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce passed a resolution requesting the board of directors to investigate and secure what information they could on the matter of city government, and report same to the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, which was held last Friday night.

The board of directors after a very exhaustive study of the matter decided to recommend the Commission Manager plan, which being in their opinion the best plan for Alexandria. The recommendation of the board was unanimously adopted and approved by the general meeting held last Friday night.

While the Chamber of Commerce is a large organization composed of the citzenship of Alexandria interested in every matter pertaining to the welfare of Alexandria, the question of whether or not the present system should be changed to an efficient business plan of city government is a question involving the interest of every qualified voter in the City of Alexandria, and, therefore, it was deemed proper that all information the Chamber of Commerce has on the subject should be submitted to the general meeting of the citizens and voters of Alexandria.

The proposed plan as apporved by the Chamber of Commerce has been the subject of much discussion and speculation for the past week or two, but the full facts in regard to the plans have not as yet been clearly put before the citizens in general.

The Board of Directors after considering the matter unanimously decided to request the President of the Chamber of Commerce to appoint a committee of nine to arrange for a geneard meeting of the citizens of the city of Alexandria, at which meeting experts on the matter could be invited to address the meeting, and a free discussion of the subject could be taken up and all phases of the proposition discussed.

Officers Chosen

Previous to the discussion the Chamber elected these officers to serve for the year: Carroll Pierce, president; Col. Julian Y. Wiliams, vicepresdent; R. Stuart Royer, business manager; J. T. Preston, secretary and treasurer.

Chairmen of committees chosen folow: John W. May, agricultural; Wallace Lindsey, publicity and conventions; W. A. Smoot, traffic and transportation; George D. Hopkins, manufacturers and jobbers; Kenneth W. Ogden, civic; R. E. Knight, Retail Merchants' Bureau.

NOTICE

There will be a called convocation of Mount Vernon Chapter No. 14. R. A. M. on Wednesday evening, March 19th, at 7:30 p. m. for the purpose of conferring the Council and Most Excellent Masters degrees. All companions are requested to be present.

By order of the M. E. High Priest.

HONOR FOR MRS. COOPER

Sponsor at Launching of U. S. Destroyer O'Bannon at San Francisco —Her Husband is Great Great Nephew of Dashing Warrior

In the pouring rain at the Potrero plant of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation at 8 o'clock yesterday morning Mrs. Henry O'Bannon Cooper, of Alexandria, Va., wife of the general attorney for the Southern Railway system, sponsored the launching of the destroyer O'Bannon.

The vessel was named in memory of First Lieutenant Presley N. O'Bannon, who fought with the United States marine corps in the war with Tripoli in 1805. Mrs. Cooper's husband is a great great-nephew of Lieutenant O'Bannon, and for that reason she was selected to christen the destroyer.

The O'Bannon, which is the forty-seventh war craft launched by the Bethlehem Shipbuilding since April, 1917; is 314 feet long, of 1200 tons and is expected to make thirty-five knots.

The launching of the destroyer yesterday revived the story of Lieutenant O'Bannon's Tripoli expedition. On the morning of April 26, 1805, he left Alexandria, Egypt, in charge of a small company and later arrived before Derne. After the Hornet, Nautilus and Argus had shelled the forts. Lieutenant O'Bannon stormed the works, hauled down the Tripolitan ensign and, for the first time, the Stars and Stripes were hoisted on a fortress in the Old World.

Subsequently, when the General in command was wounded, Lieutenant O'Bannon took command of the battery and routed the enemy.

Mrs. Cooper and her husband, who left Hotel St. Francis yesterday afternoon for Southern California, are on their first western visit. They will remain in the south a few days before returning to Virginia.—(San Francisco Chronical) March 1.

SALE OF OLD LANDMARK

"Snowden House," on Lee Street, Between Gibbon and Franklin, Changes Hands, and Will be Converted Into Apartment Hotel.

R. S. Roberts has purchased from Richard B. Washington, the dwelling on the west side of Lee street, near Franklin, long known as the "Snowden House," and it will be converted into an apartment hotel.

This house was erected in 1780 by the late John C. or Thomas Vowell, who came to Alexandria from England during the last years of the revolutionary war. It was supposed at the beginning that the southeastern section of the city would become the residential part of Alexandria, and this house was one of a number which was erected about that time in that locality.

During the early part of the last century Joseph Harris, a retired merchant, purchased the property, and the silk worm craze at its height at that time, Harris contracted the fever and planted the opposite lot with mulberry trees. After the malady had subsided he realized that his fortune had taken wings and that his expected crop of silk was an illusion. He passed into bankruptcy, and the late Edgar Snowden, who up to his death in 1875 edited the Gazette, purchased the property. For a long time it was known as the "Snowden House."

A few years ago Mr. Washington acquired the property. The last purchaser will utilize it as stated above.

KILLED BY A BOMB

Mrs. George Greenwood, wife of the vice president of the Union Savings Bank and Trust Company of San Francisco, was killed instantly by a bomb exploded last night in the garden of the family home overlooking Lake Merritt in the residential district of Oakland.

SIX THOUSAND IDLE

Six thousand men are idle at Bessemer, Ala., as a result of the closing down of the plants of the Woodward Iron Company Saturday. Employes of the company are thronging the streets and merchants are in a quandary at the prospect of a slump in business. Vice President Frank Cockard states the plant was closed down on account of the condition of the iron market. He said today that the company had no orders for pig iron —its chief commodity—and that the plant would not resume operations until orders for iron were received.

INGOMAR—"FAN FAN"

Many have seen the big extravaganzas which are shown continuously at the roof theatres of New York. If not they have heard glowing tales of the gorgeousness and magnificence with which they are produced. On account of the magnitude of these great shows they very seldom leave the theatre where they are presented.

Now, however, you have the extravaganza in all its colorful gorgeousness, its big smashing scenes, right at your door. Extravaganza never had been undertaken in motion pictures until William Fox made "Fan Fan," and this unique photoplay will be seen tonight at the Ingomar Theatre.

R. WALTON MOORE FORMALLY ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY FOR CONGRESS.

Fairfax, Va., March 18, 1919.

Fellow Citizens:

Having resigned the Government position which I held during a part of the war period, I now wish to confirm the statements published in the press, since the Hon. C. C. Carlin's retirement from Congress, by announcing my candidacy for the Democratic nomination as Representative from the Eighth District. As a lifelong resident of the District, I believe I have a knowledge of its conditions and needs which will enable me to successfully employ whatever strength and experience I may possess in the work of guarding and promoting its interests. The future of the District, which of course involves the welfare of those engaged in agriculture and in all the other pursuits and enterprises to which our people are devoting their energies, will be vitally affected by federal legislation in the enactment of which its representative will be a participant. There are large problems of a general nature, and there are also specific problems, none of which can be rightly disposed of without advantage to the District. At a time of great and serious concern to the country, I have completely and finally severed my connection with private business, and now seek the opportunity of entering the public service, with the resolute purpose, if chosen, of sparing no exertion in the effort to justify the confidence of the District, which, due to its resources, its location and the character of its people, is of unsurpassed importance. Should I receive the high honor of being nominated and elected I will become a member of the House of Representatives free from any agreement or obligation, except the single promise that I will always be accessible to my constituents, and will strive to represent them with fairness and wisdom to the very best of my ability.

Faithfully yours,
R. WALTON MOORE.

PEACE CONFERENCE

Discuss Questions Concerning Dismantling of Heligoland, Kiel Canal Fortifications Disposition of Hun Warships, Etc.

Paris, March 19.—President Wilson met the allied premiers yesterday to continue discussion of such outstanding questions as dismantling of the Heligoland and Kiel Canal fortifications, disposition of the German warships and cables, etc.

The next meeting of the supreme war council will be held this afternoon.

Italy joined America in contending that Great Britain cannot claim the German cables as war prizes. Military and naval experts were deadlocked as to what course to pursue in this regard, so Great Britain agreed that she and the interested nations should submit briefs to the supreme war council which will decide the controversy.

Italy's alleged threat to withdraw from the Peace Conference unless she is given Fiume was believed today to have been averted by a compromise. Througs this compromise, Italy will receive Fiume, but iwl relinquish all her claims to Delmatia. The cities of Zara and Sebenico will become free ports but the remainder of Dalmatia will be allotted to Jugo-Slavia.

Washington, March 19.—The first of a number of "couriers" being sent to Europe by opponents of the league of nations to carry uncensored reports of American public opinion on the league of nations to the Peace Conference is on the sea. He is to be followed by others, who will go under the orders of an organization recently formed to fight the league.

These couriers go ostensibly on other missions. But they carry with them a great mass of data which they have been instructed to disseminate in France and England regarding the Senate's attitude on the league constitution, and its probable vote if the league compact is included in the peace treaty.

THE LATE J. T. ELLYSON

The frends and acquaintances of James Taylor Ellyson were startled today to learn of his death, which occurred yesterday. The deceased was well known in Alexandria, as he was in every section of the Old Dominion. He was in fact a national figure to some extent, although his labors were mostly restricted to the state of his birth. His biography will be found elsewhere in the Gazette.

As a Richmond paper says, a useful and esteemed citizen "has been removed from the ranks of Virginia's living sons, and his name is now inscribed on that proud roll of those who, after laboring devotedly and tirelessly in its behalf, have passed on. Other sons of Virginia have been known more widely beyond its boundaries, other Virgina names may stand out in greater relief of his-history's pages, but none has been better known within the State, none has labored more ardently for its welfare, none has been more highly respected and none more universally and regretfully missed than he who yesterday concluded his toils here and crossed over to the other side

"In some respects Mr. Ellyson's career was unique in Virginia annals. Of ancient and honorable family, he was a Virginian by birth and to the manner born. He was educated in its schools, fought under its colors, and his whole business and political life was inseparably bound up with that of the State he loved so well, and which in turn repaid him with its honors. A mere youth, he left the cloistered schoolroom to answer the call of the Confederacy and he folowed its fortunes to Appomattox. When the cause for which he fought was lost, he looked not backward, but took up the work of reconstruction, and was oneu of those forward-seeing men to whom Virginia must render homage for its present prosperity.

"It is as a public servant that his name will live long and his life serve as an example for others.'

PASSING OF NEGRO MINSTRELSY

Frank Dumont, dean of negro minstrelsy, dropped dead in the box office of Dumont's Theatre, Philadelphia, yesterday afternoon. He was 71 years old. Dumont had been in the minstrel business since boyhood. He was the last survivor of the old Carncross and Dixie troupe, which had a run in old Liberty Hall in Alexandria in 1863.

The death of Dumont brings to mind recollections of long ago when negro minstrelsy was at its zenith. This species of amusement was originated by a man in Philadelphia, who took the name of Dixie, several brothers unitng with him in his productions. The originator committed suicide many years ago. In a snort time negro minstrels had been organized all over the country, and about the time our civil war was brewing it was the chief form of amusement. It flourished throughout the war and for some time subsequent, but the advent of other new forms of diversion caused its slow decline. People's taste changed, and burnt cork artists later found themselves lagging superflus upon the stage. The invention of talking machines gave the profession its coup de grace.

In ante bellum times some troupes were popular, and crowded houses greeted them wherever they appeared. Some Alexandrians may remember Joe Sweeney's minstrels, and the mirth enjoyed when this band appeared at Old Liberty Hall. Sweeney was a soldier in the Confederate army, and during the conflict he often soothed the souls of Alexandrians with his banjo.

Negro minstrelsy has long been a thing of the past, and the death of Dumont virtually closes the last scene of all.

The southern air, "Dixie," originated in negro minstrlsy. As is generally known, a fiddler named Dan Emmert, member of a band of itinernants, brought this melody to the birth while listening to negroes sing while loading cotton on a steamer at Mobile.

LABOR RESPECTS LAW

The "No Beer—no Work" strike proposed for July 1 was condemned by 400 delegates of the State Federation of Labor and State Building Trades Council at a joint meeting in Newark, N. J., last Sunday. The delegates, however, adopted resolutions urging Congress to repeal both war time and permanent prohibition, and calling on President Wilson for aid.

"A general strike for beer by laboring men on July 1 would make us look ridiculous," declared Henry F. Hilrers, secretary of the labor federation, one of the speakers. "A general strike always means a disruption of organized labor. We must express our protests by other means."

This action of representatives of labor in New Jersey will be read with satisfaction by all peace-loving persons. There is a decided movement in some places to make "No beer no work" a slogan in this country, and while some workmen are inclined to be radical in ther aims, it is believed that the majority are not n sympathy with them.

Buttons, bearing the legend, "No beer no work" have recently been circulated in Alexandria, but, so far, they have not met with the response expected.

TIME IS THE TEST.

The Testimony of Alexandria People Stands the Test.

The test of time is what tells the tale. The public soon finds out when misrepresentations are made, and merit alone will stand the test of time.

Alexandria people appreciate merit, and many months ago local citizens publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills; they do so still. Would a citizen make the statement which follows unless convinced that the article was just as represented? Below is testimony such as the sufferer from Kidney ills is looking for.

Mrs. G. W. Davis, 107 Prince St., Alexandria, says: "Doctors treated me for along while and pronounced my case of kidney trouble a severe one. Often I felt so listless and nervous, I almost gave up hope. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me relief after everything failed. Doan's strengthened my kidneys and removed the trouble."

THREE YEARS LATER Mrs. Davis added: "I still take Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally when my kidneys don't act as they should. I always get quick relief."

Price 60c., at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Davis had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A decision by Judge Hardison in the police court of the District of Columbia yesterday sustaining a contention by Attorney Robert I. Miller, quashes a large number of cases in that court involving charges of Section 4 of the Sheppard dry law, which prohibited the bringing of liquor into the District of Columbia after 5 p. m. Attorney Miller argued that the Reed bone dry amendment repealed the section, and the court upheld him. The specific case used to test the point was that of Adolph Dunon, charged with having brought into the District 65 cases of whisky after 5 p. m., on February 25, the day President Wilson signed the Reed bone dry amendment. Dunon was alleged to have violated Section 4 of the Sheppard law.

Italy will demand an indemnity of $3,000,000,000 from Austria-Hungary, it is reported semi-officially. One billion of this will be asked in cash, the remainder to be paid in five years through iron shipments.

Three men entered the Bank of Goodlettsville, near Nashville, Tenn., yesterday, shortly after noon, and after forcing the cashier at the point of a pistol into a vault, stole about $11,500 in cash. They then entered a high-powered touring car and escaped in the direction of Nashville.

Insure the home NOW—don't delay another day. This is the season in which most fires occur. Insuring through this agency means ABSOLUTE PROTECTION at regular rates.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Many farmers of the western section of Frederick county have plowed up large numbers of the 17-year locusts, which are scheduled to appear in May and June. Several farmers found the earth honey-combed with locusts about six inches below the surface.

Col. William A. Bishop, the noted Canadian aviator, underwent an operation at Roanoke late Monday night for acute appendicitis. Attending surgeons announce that his condition was as well as could be expected. Col. Bishop was to deliver an address here, but became ill shortly before the hour set for his appearance. All his engagements in the South have been canceled.

The election held yesterday at Bristol for changing from the present councilmanic form to the city manager plan was defeated. Two hundred and seventy-eight votes were cast in favor of changing to the city manager plan, 71 votes short of the necessary majority.

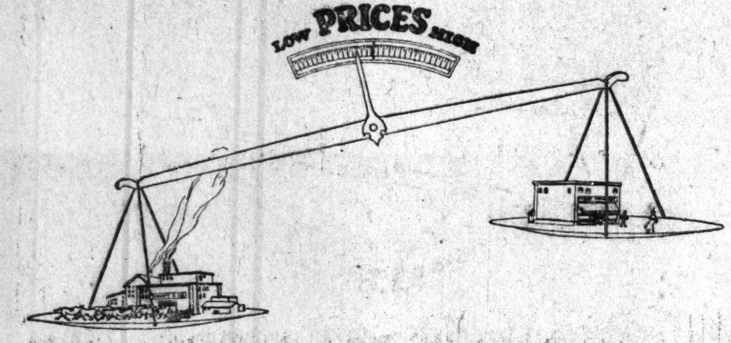
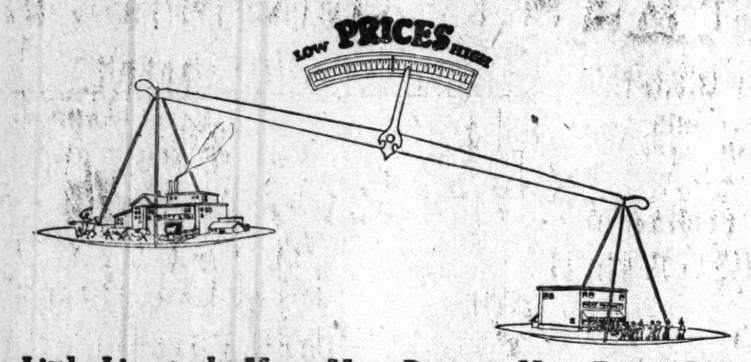
Why Prices Go Up and Down



Much Livestock, Few Meat Buyers; Meat Prices Fall



Little Livestock, Many Meat Buyers; Meat Prices Rise

This shows why prices fluctuate. The number of animals shipped to market varies from week to week. The demand for meat also changes frequently, and often unexpectedly.

This means that live-stock prices and wholesale meat prices change from day to day. Competition determines prices so that the supply on hand at any one time is just taken up by the demand.

Swift & Company doesn't like these price changes. We have to use the utmost skill in buying and selling in order to get our average profit of a fraction of a cent per pound of meat.

Why Do They Write?

THE same kindly feeling toward his fellow creatures that inspires a person to recommend a good book leads one to tell how he or she was saved from suffering and made well and strong. It is simply the desire to help others. The following letter was written by Mrs. Frank P. Wood, Box 18, R. F. D. 2, Morrill, Me.:

"Foley Kidney Pills helped me so much, I find relief as soon as I begin taking them. My husband also has received so much benefit from taking Foley Kidney Pills and feels so much better. He was so lame he could not stoop over and now he feels none of the pain. I remain always your well-wisher."

Similar testimonial letters have been received from practically every state in the Union, all written by men and women who wish to help those suffering as they were from kidney and bladder trouble.

Foley Kidney Pills

When the kidneys are inactive, weak, sluggish, overworked or diseased they fail to filter from the blood stream the impurities that must be eliminated from the system if good health is to be preserved. When the kidneys are out of order, this poisonous waste matter in the blood causes backache, pains in side, rheumatic pains, lumbago, stiffness or swelling of joints, sore muscles and other symptoms that bring pain and misery in their wake.

Foley Kidney Pills are prompt in action and tonic in their healing and soothing effect on weak, sore, overworked, diseased kidneys and bladder, helping these important organs to properly perform their functions. They stop sleep-disturbing bladder ailments, help purify the blood and make sound, good health an easier achievement for the afflicted.
